United States District Judge

RE: United States v. Bevelyn Williams
22 Cr. 684 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

I am the attorney for the defendant, Bevelyn Williams, in the above-referenced matter, having been appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act (“CJA”), 18 U.S.C. § 3006 A. I am writing to respectfully request a temporary modification of the conditions of release to allow Ms. Williams to travel by car from her home in Tennessee to New York to attend the final pre-trial conference on February 2, 2024. Ms. Williams would also respectfully request permission to travel to Maine by car from Saturday, February 3, 2024 until February 6, 2024 staying at an address known to Pretrial Services. Ms. Williams would then drive back to Tennessee and return to New York City for the duration of the trial in this matter which is scheduled to begin on February 12, 2024. I have conferred with the Government and the Pretrial Officer assigned to Ms. Williams. The Government indicated that it defers to the position of Pretrial Services. Pretrial Services has stated that there is no objection to the defense request for Ms. Williams to travel by either the Eastern District of Tennessee or the Southern District of New York Pretrial Services. Ms. Williams will provide all details of her itinerary to Officer Kimberly Williams prior to any travel.

Very truly yours,

/s/
